Transnational Training on Diversity in Cultural Learning

Training Programme

Putting ideas into practice

Day 5

6 Wrapped presents & I'm glad

Final Exercises and Reflections

45 min

Useful for:

Getting participants to reflect on what they have learned.

Resources needed:

Small wrapped presents, enough for each participant to have one. Participants should be asked, before they come to the workshop, to bring one small present each. It is these presents which are used.

Room Layout:

Clear space with the presents on the floor in the centre of the room. Chairs around in a circle

What happens?

Each person comes forward and selects one of the presents.

They then return to their place in the circle and opens their present. They then have to explain why this present is the perfect present for him or her by saying 'this is the perfect present for me because...'
